The following charts show the 1955 Development Program for the Development Offices of VEB Roentgenwerk Ilmenau, VEB Elmed Hohen-Neuendorf, and VEB Galvanotechnik Leipzig. These Development Offices are directly responsible to the Central Office for Development and Construction of Electronic Machinery, which is under the Main Administration for Electronic Equipment Construction in the East German Ministry for Heavy Machine Construction. The 1954 plan numbers of projects carried out in that year are given for the sake of comparison.
